

Packermania Newsletter

Issue # 1 June 17 2005

Biographies Of The Week

By James and Bobby

Vince Lombardi

Vince Lombardi was coach of the Green Bay Packers. Lombardi coached the Packers to five NFL championships and victories in Superbowls I and II. He was a great coach.

Mike Sherman

Mike Sherman was born in 1954. He coached for seven different teams. He currently coaches for the Green Bay Packers. In 2004 he was the head coach/manager for the Packers. We all hope he is a good coach for this year.

Packermania News

By Brad, Thunder, Sawn, Stan

On Monday, we toured the Bowler football field, and the press box. We did some beadwork too. We also watched a movie about the Packers' early years.

On Tuesday, we had "Training Camp." We did kicking and passing, and measured our results. We watched a movie on The Ice Bowl.

On Wednesday, for "Training Camp," we did a tire drill. We saw the end of the Ice Bowl movie. For our craft today, we painted rocks.

We made necklaces and bracelets with Packer beads. We put the beads on strings. There were a lot of colors. It was a lot of fun. We're almost finished.

On Thursday, we ran a 40-yard dash in Training Camp. We painted rocks. Some people finished painting their rocks. We watched parts of five great Packer games from history. We practiced videotaping for our sports show on Friday.

This Week In Packer

Country (News about the Green and Gold)

By: Dylan, Stanley, & Brandon

over $150,000 for charity at Brett Favre's softball game. They had a record crowd of almost 9,000 fans. Donald Driver had outstanding back-to-back home runs. Aaron Rogers made a strange play by doing a cartwheel into second base.

Packermania Training Camp Report

The class participated in passing, kicking, running, and agility drills.

We averaged 52.4 feet in our passing drills. We averaged 35.4 feet in kicking. We averaged 8 seconds in the 40-yard dash. In the tire drill, we averaged 3.31 seconds. We ran through 10 tires. We try something new each day.

The Favre family raised